Surplus Iris Sale

Season 1930

As an Iris Lover I am interested in every new introduction that is announced. I purchase and grow all new offerings giving credit of honest intentions and competence of judgment to all introducers until found otherwise.

* * * * *

There has been great and growing interest in Iris for a number of years. The yearly introductions run into the hundreds. Very few, if any, commercial growers try to keep up with this stream and present a complete assortment.

* * * * *

The tendency is to select a number of varieties according to personal judgment, rumor, and report and say nothing about the others. A statement by a prominent authority or publication will cause a stampede on even an ordinary variety.

* * * * *

The result is a vast array of fine Iris equal to the more touted ones that remain unknown until we have a veritable storehouse of treasures unknown.

* * * * *

Your attention is especially directed to the many novelties included in these groups comprising the latest introductions of Cayeux and Williamson, the new Goos and Koeneman and Vilmorin varieties. You may get acquainted with these new creations at a very moderate outlay.

* * * * *

This is very likely the last Surplus Sale as I am compelled to materially reduce the quantity of stocks on hand and the wise buyer will not let this opportunity go by unheeded.

GENERAL TERMS

This Surplus Sale is in effect only from August 15th to September 10th, 1930.

TERMS CASH WITH ORDER

Each group must be taken as listed. No half groups or split orders between groups. Only one root of any variety may be selected in one group.

HOW TO MAKE SELECTION

All varieties listed are keyed as to the predominating color effect by the number and letter appearing with each name as follows:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1A Light Blue Tones | 3A Yellow Self Tones |
| 1B Medium Blue Tones | 3B Yellowish Blended Tones |
| 1C Deep Blue and Violet Tones | 3C Yellow and Bronzed Bicolor |
| 2A Light Pink Tones | 4A Self Whites |
| 2B Medium Red Tones | 4B Plicata, Frilled and Dotted |
| 2C Deep Bronzed Red Purples | 4C White Stands, Colored Falls |

This furnishes a general color identification. You are referred to AN IRIS LOVERS CATALOG for more detailed descriptions.

The Midsummer Bulletin

The incessant stream of correspondence, order filling, resetting, studying the new arrivals for acquisition, have so far left no time to write.

"Iris As I Bloomed Them And As I Like Them"

For This Year's Purchases

It will, however, be in your hands by September, making possible Iris gardening in retrospect or should I say in prospect. It will make interesting reading during the months nature halts our active Iris work.

Thank you all for your patronage and encouraging letters.
